dinner - convict night

The Cradle Room will be converted to a convict ship ...As the guests arrive they will be transported back in time to the early days of Australia, where they find themselves aboard a convict galleon a day away from Van Diemens Land.

The Captain and crew are old hands at the Southampton to Van Diemens route and, in a Monty Python style, have developed games to make the trip less boring!! Alas the poor convicts are the brunt of the games – in a highly interactive and tastefully humorous way of course!

To ensure a resounding success we recommend the provision of five professional actors, all who have had extensive improvisation study and experience. From the moment of entry into the galleon the crew, led by their beloved Captain, will interact, entertain and taunt the guests prior to the festivities (games).

After dinner, as punishment, the guests will be treated to an evening of intense theatre sports. The group will be divided into teams and the Captain will instruct “the games to commence”. The teams will battle it out to the bitter end for a tot of rum each and a turn for a lap of fresh air on the deck tomorrow.

All the while Captain and crew will commentate, assist, hinder and disqualify but most importantly create an entertaining and exciting evening of comedy and mayhem.

Delegates are encouraged to dress accordingly to build on the theme.
This theme can also be conducted in the Tavern Bar (subject to availability).

dinner - the haunted room

Guests will gather by the fire in the bar downstairs. When the time is right they will be joined by the Tour Director who will lead them on an adventure of mystery. History has it that before new owners from the mainland took possession of Cradle Mountain Lodge in 1988, the lodge was haunted. After many exorcisms, including changing the name from Pencil Pine Lodge, all ghosts were confined to the one room. The Cradle Room. Now, for the first time in 10 years, the room is to be unlocked.

After explaining these facts to the guests, the guide leads the party up to the room of ghosts. As they reach the stair well, the eerie atmosphere seems to envelope them. The odd cobweb can be seen, through the smoky haze. Greenish lighting will give the effect of impending doom. In hushed but obviously excited tones, the Tour Director gives a running commentary of facts surrounding the mysteries of Cradle Mountain.

At last the guide pushes the heavy doors open. With an eerie creak and a blast of smoke the haunted room is revealed. The visual spectacle before them is all encompassing and prickles at the senses of sight, sound, taste and smell. Candelabras dripping in cobwebs flicker throughout with a myriad of intricate cobwebs and intertwined memorabilia. Again the lighting will be subdued with a green tinge adding to the dimensions of the supernatural.

Amidst the sound effects of rain and thunder and creaking doors it becomes apparent that there are human statues impeded in the webs almost like cocoons, installed around the venue. As time passes, one by one these images / characters will emerge and come to life living out the last few hours prior to their deaths. The timing of these scenarios will ensure a sense of surprise that will send a shiver up the spine of even the most hardhearted guest.
