SELF DRIVE

Peppers Cradle Mountain Lodge is located 81km from Devonport (1½ hrs), 110km from Burnie (1½ hrs), 142km from Launceston (2½ hrs) and 375km from Hobart (4½ hrs). Allow additional travelling time during adverse conditions.

Car rental is available through all major car rental companies in airport or city locations.

From Hobart – 4½ Hours Drive

There are two main routes to Peppers Cradle Mountain Lodge from Hobart. The most direct route takes you up the Midlands Highway (A1) to Perth, and then through Sheffield, and will take around 4½ hours.

From Hobart follow the Midlands Highway (A1) north towards Perth travelling through Campbell Town. As you enter the town turn left towards Longford (B52). Follow this road past the towns of Hagley, Westbury and Deloraine. At Elizabeth Town turn left (B13) towards Kimberley. At Kimberley cross the Mersey River and turn left (C156) towards Sheffield. At Sheffield turn left (C136) following the signs to Cradle Mountain. You will travel through Claude Road and Gowrie Park, crossing the Forth River at Cethana. At Moina turn left (C132). After approximately 20km turn to your left at the intersection to Cradle Mountain. Follow this road for 4km and you will see the Lodge on the right just before the Pencil Pine River.

The other route is via Derwent Bridge to Queenstown (A10) and up the West Coast on A10 through Zeehan, Rosebery and Tullah. Turn right onto the C132 towards Cradle Mountain. This route takes approximately 6 hours.

From Launceston – 2½ Hours Drive

Follow the signs from Launceston towards the North West Coast along the A1. Bypass the towns of Hagley, Westbury and Deloraine. At Elizabeth Town turn left (B13) towards Kimberley. At Kimberley cross the Mersey River and continue to Railton then turn left onto the (B14) to Sheffield. At Sheffield turn left (C136) following the signs to Cradle Mountain. You will travel through Claude Road and Gowrie Park, crossing the Forth River at Cethana. At Moina turn left (C132).

After approximately 20km turn left at the intersection to Cradle Mountain. Follow this road for 4km and you will see the Lodge on the right just before the Pencil Pine River.

It is possible to turn off the highway at Deloraine and travel through Mole Creek (where the Trowunna Wildlife Park and Marakooopa and King Solomans Caves are located), however this road is less direct to Cradle Mountain.

From Devonport – 1½ Hours Drive

If driving from Devonport City Centre follow Formby Road, which runs alongside the Mersey River, towards Spreyton. At Spreyton, turn right on to the B14 to Sheffield. Drive through the town of Sheffield until you reach the C136, at this intersection turn right towards Moina and Cradle Mountain. You will now travel through Claude Road and Gowrie Park, crossing the Forth River at Cethana. At Moina turn left (C132). After approximately 20km turn left again at the intersection to Cradle Mountain. Follow this road for 4km and you will see the Lodge on the right just before the Pencil Pine River.

If driving from the Devonport Airport, follow the Bass Highway towards Devonport City Centre. On the Victoria Bridge, which crosses the Mersey River, take the exit ramp to your left and make a left turn on Formby Road towards Spreyton. Then follow directions as above.

You can also drive to Cradle Mountain from Devonport via the village of Forth. This road is the C132 and will also take you through the town of Wilmot. The C132 passes straight through Moina. After approximately 20km turn left at the intersection to Cradle Mountain. Follow this road for 4km and you will see the Lodge on the right just before the Pencil Pine River.

From Burnie – 1½ Hours Drive

From Burnie head towards Ridgley following the B18. After approximately 40 minutes the road will veer left, just before the picnic ground, joining the A10. After a 10 minute drive you will meet another intersection where you turn left onto the C132. The Cradle Mountain turn off is approximately 20 minutes drive further, turn right and travel another 4km and you will see the Lodge on the right just before the Pencil Pine River.

From Strahan – 2 Hours Drive

From Strahan take the B27 along Ocean Beach towards Zeehan. At Zeehan turn left onto the A10. Travel through Rosebery and Tullah, and you will then come to another intersection and after approximately 20km you will need to turn right onto the C132. The Cradle Mountain turn off is approximately 20 minutes drive further, turn right and travel another 4km and you will see the Lodge on the right just before the Pencil Pine River.
